"HEY FLY TYER! LET'S DO IT AGAIN!"
REELING & HEALING MIDWEST SEEKS FLY DONATIONS

BRANCH, MI, MARCH 4, 2008: Reeling & Healing Midwest, a non-profit organization that champions and hosts fly fishing wellness retreats for women cancer survivors, seeks donations of flies for use during their 2008 retreats.

Last year's fly donation campaign brought in over 200 dozen flies from fly tyers and tying clubs all over the world – from Iraq, Hawaii and Patagonia, to every regions of the United States. Once again, tyers and clubs are invited to join in and make 2008 just as successful as last year. Just do it - donate flies to a good cause.

What types of flies are needed? All types, including trout flies (dries, nymphs, streamers.), bass flies, steelhead and salmon flies. Have flies in your collection that you don't foresee using? An old box with an assortment that you don't need anymore? Send them to us! We promise to use them in a stream, river or pond.

Reeling & Healing Midwest will host twelve to fourteen retreats in the Midwest during 2008. They anticipate over 460 cancer survivors will participate, helped along by dozens of dedicated volunteers and fishing guides who generously donate their time and services to make each retreat a meaningful success. Donated flies play a large part in the success of these retreats as well. They're a key ingredient!

No flies to donate? Consider donating monies towards the purchase of flies and fly boxes. Flies and donations can be mailed to Reeling & Healing Midwest, Attn: Margaret, 4410 South Sweetwater Lane, Branch, MI 49402. All donations are tax deductible as permitted by law.

Reeling & Healing Midwest, originally known as Reeling & Healing of Michigan, is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit that is 100% volunteer-staffed and 100% donor-supported.
